

CONFERENCE VENUE

TUESDAY, June 11th, 19:30- 21:00. A Welcome Reception will be served at the Institut d'Estudis Catalans (Institute for Catalan Studies), located close to the popular "La Rambla", at the former Casa de Convalescència, a 17th Century building.

The address of the Institut d'Estudis Catalans is C. del Carme, 47 (indicated with an A in the enclosed map).

Access to the Institut d'Estudis Catalans, at C. del Carme 47

Cloister of the Institut d'Estudis Catalans, venue for the Welcome Reception

WEDNESDAY TO SATURDAY, June 12th – 15th. The regular sessions of the Workshop will take place at the Escola Industrial, a set of modernist buildings originally designed as a textile factory.

The address of the Escola Industrial (highlighted in red in the enclosed map) is C. Urgell 187.

Façade of the Escola Industrial, with its Main Gate at C. Urgell 187.

Main access to the UPC Building (the open door at the left), at the Escola Industrial.

Regular sessions will take place at the Sala d'Actes (first floor of the UPC Building), which will be conveniently indicated with a number of displayed posters already from the Main Access shown on this page.

THURSDAY, June 13th, 17:30- 19:30. As part of the Cultural Program of the Workshop, we offer an OPTIONAL guided tour: Gaudí and Modernism in Barcelona. This guided walking tour will include a visit to one of the famous buildings designed by the Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí: la Pedrera (aka Casa Milà). Main stops of the tour include:

- * Casa Fuster, L. Domènech i Montaner
- * La Pedrera (ticket to visit the building and roof included in the tour), A. Gaudí
- * La poma de la discòrdia: Casa Batlló (A. Gaudí), Casa Amatller (J. Puig i Cadafalch), Casa Lleó Morera (L. Domènech i Montaner), Casa Bonet (M. Coquillat) i Casa Mulleras (E. Sagnier)
- * Palau de la Música, J. Puig i Cadafalch

Participants interested in booking this tour should contact the Organizers at their earliest convenience (eurogenesis@ieec.cat). The cost of the guided tour (including the visit of La Pedrera) is 30 Euros.

THURSDAY, June 13th, 19:45- 23:00. All registered participants are invited to the Night of History and Legend at Palau Requesens / CONFERENCE DINNER

Program

- * Glass of cava (Catalan champagne)
- * Guided tour through Barcelona's Gothic Quarter
- * Dinner (traditional Medieval Catalan food)
- * Short Talk on Medieval Barcelona

Palau Requesens

Palau Requesens is located at Carrer Bisbe Caçador, 3 (indicated with an A in the enclosed map), not far from the Cathedral.

Notice that Palau Requesens is close (i.e., 10-min walk) to the Palau de la Música, endpoint of the optional guided tour proposed for the same day